

Almost everyone has indulged the fantasy of growing old in a home shared with friends. In Wine on the Porch, seven seniors – and two seniors-in-training – bring the fantasy to life. Their adventures inspire this charming collection of short stories filled with warmth, laugh-out-loud humour, and the joys of being old enough to know better – and old enough not to care.

Dining together most evenings is a treasured part of their interwoven lives, and a favourite recipe accompanies each of the twenty-four stories. Pull up a chair. May we pour you a glass of Wine on the Porch?
