Re: Author's bio for submission ID: 2024-288-28892 to the 2024 Leacock Medal Award.

Jane Doucet is a Halifax-based journalist whose articles have appeared in myriad national magazines and newspapers, including Chatelaine, Canadian Living and The Globe and Mail. In 2017, she self-published her debut novel, The Pregnant Pause, which was shortlisted for a 2018 Whistler Independent Book Award. Her second novel, Fishnets & Fantasies, was published by Nimbus Publishing's Vagrant Press in 2021. Vagrant Press released her third novel, Lost & Found in Lunenburg, in 2023 and rereleased The Pregnant Pause with a new cover that same year. Jane lives in Halifax with her husband and is working on her fourth novel.

Thank you for the opportunity to submit to this award.

With gratitude,

Christina Marquette
